

Umar Juoro

Current Position

Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Bank Indonesia. (Ketua Badan Supervisi Bank Indonesia; BSBI).

Present Activities

- Managing Director, the Institute for National Development Studies (LPPN/ INDES)
- Senior Economist, the Center for Information and Development Studies (CIDES)
- CastleAsia Advisory Board

Previous Professional Experience

- 1998: Consultant for ILO – Bappenas on Seventh Five Year Development Plan for Manpower Planning
- 1998: Consultant for ILO Mission on Unemployment Impact of Economic Crisis in Indonesia
- 1997: Consultant to ILO on youth unemployment in Indonesia
- 1997: Consultant to Ministry of Industry and Trade-ADB on Export Performance, Technology Development, and Human Resource Development in Labor Intensive Industries
- 1997: Consultant to CIDA (Canadian International Development Agency Ministry of Public Works on Infrastructure Development Planning in Indonesia
- 1997: Consultant to BAPENNAS (National Development Planning Board) on Infrastructure in underdeveloped Villages
- 1992 – 1997: Guest Lecturer on Economic Development at Social Science Graduate Program, University of Indonesia
- 1996: Consultant UNDP – BAPPENAS (National Development Planning Board of Indonesia) on Sustainable Human Development
- 1994 – 1996: National Project Coordinator and Consultant UNDP-ILO-BAPPENAS on Sectoral Employment Planning and Policy
- 1996: Consultant for Ministry of Manpower on Human Resource Development in Pulp and Paper Industry
- 1996: Consultant for Ministry of Public Works on Macro Economic Aspects of Infrastructure Development
- 1995: Consultant for JICA (Japan International Cooperation Agency) – Ministry of Manpower on Engineering Manpower
- 1993 – 1995, National Consultant for World Bank – BAPPENAS on Professional Human Resource Development
- 1992, Research Fellow, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore
- 1990 – 1992, Research Fellow at the Institute for Education, Information, Economic and Social Research (LP3S)
- 1989, Consultant for Friedrich Naumann Stiftung on NGOs in Indonesia

Education

- Certificate, Advanced Studies in International Economics, Kiel Institute of World Economics, Kiel Germany, 1993
- Certificate, European Awareness Course, Louvine Belgium, 1993
- Master of Arts in Political Economy, Department of Economics, Boston University, Boston USA, 1992. (Finished Ph.D. Coursework and Preliminary exams).
- Master of Arts in Economics, School of Economics, University of the Philippines, 1989

Publications

- “Indonesia”, in W. Sachsenroeder and U.F. Friags (eds.), Political Party System and Democratic Development in East and Southeast Asia, Brookfield, Ashgatc, 1998

- “China Economic Development and It’s Implications for Southeast Asia”, In China’s International Role, Bonn: Friedrich Ebert Stiftung (conference Papers), 1997
- “Financial Liberalization in Indonesia”, ASEAN Economic Bulletin, 1993
- “Economic Agglomeration in Indonesia and the Philippines”, Philippines Review of Economics and Business, 1989
- “Employment and Economic Growth”, Prisma, 1985
- Leading issues in Economic Developments, (in Indonesia) Bandung; Alumni, 1995

Note:

Various popular articles among other published at Far Eastern Economic Review (Hong Kong), the Strait Times (Singapore), Business News (Singapore) and leading Indonesia newspapers and magazines such as Kompas and Gatra.